Eric and Dilys Burt Memorial Trust Endowment Fund Scholarship

Eric Burt was 'Long known as a dis_inguished reporter, Eric and his wife Dilys were avid Symphony goers," says Andrew Mason, a past chair of the Symphony's Board of Directors. "Although Eric wasn't musically inclined himself, he absolutely loved the music. The Symphony offered him a sense of the community and its talents. He was always impressed with its quality and level of music activity."

Scholarship Guidelines

The recipient must be a musician, who is pursuing formal post-secondary study at a university of recognized school of music in the study of a symphonic instrument. Proof of enrolment will be required. Graduate studies are applicable. Preference will be given to musicians who have had working experience playing with the Saskatoon Symphony. Along with the completed application form, all applicants must submit a letter of reference which supports their musicianship and artistic merit.

The application deadline is November 25th, 2016. Successful candidates will be notified in early 2017.
