

Jacqueline Nutting

Assistant Concertmaster

Jacqueline Nutting was born and raised in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. She obtained a bachelor degree from McGill University in Montreal. Her graduate work was done on fellowship at the University of Michigan where she completed master and doctorate degrees in violin performance. The focus of her doctoral thesis was contemporary Canadian repertoire for the violin from 1920 to present day, which included the commission and premiere performance of a work by Canadian composer Goef Holbrook. Former teachers include Yehonaton Berick, Andrew Jennings, Ellen Jewett and Mark Gothony.

In 2018, she toured the United States with her piano trio, Virago Trio. She has also concertized in Turkey and throughout Canada. She held the position of director of the violin programs at St. Francis of Assisi and St. Thomas the Apostle schools in Ann Arbor, Michigan for 10 years. During her time in Michigan, she played with the Michigan Opera Theatre at the Detroit Opera House and held a private studio. She is pleased to return to Saskatoon and join the Saskatoon Symphony as Assistant Concertmaster while also opening a violin studio and continuing with chamber music projects in Canada and the United States.

---

SASKATOON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

---