ABOUT THE SSO

CEO and Creative Producer Mark Turner

MUSIC DIRECTOR EMERITUS Eric Paetkau

Founded in 1927, the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra (SSO) is a professional orchestra based in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

With a mission of performing diverse repertoire spanning classical masterworks, contemporary compositions and innovative cross-genre collaborations, SSO aims to engage audiences of all ages and backgrounds through dynamic, immersive concert experiences.

Along with standard symphonic repertoire, SSO champions the work of diverse composers and artists, cultivating an environment of artistic excellence, collaboration, and creative exploration.

As one of the most innovative arts organization in North America, SSO has been at the forefront of embracing technological advancements, providing full seasons of live-streamed performances via its own streaming app, ConcertStream.TV since 2020/21.

The orchestra regularly performs at the 2000-seat TCU Place Concert Hall, Knox United Church, and various venues throughout the city.

Remuneration: $34,730 with a maximum of 200 services.

A pension contribution of 8% is also made to the Musicians' Pension Fund of Canada.

Saskatoon provides an opportunity for developing a thriving private studio for teaching, clinician and masterclass workshops, and a host of other teaching and performing opportunities in the community.
